subjoined statement by the said Sub-Division Office will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the undermentioned statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognised vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the balance of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase meney paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or other authority duly authorised to confirm the sale.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Revenue Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided that parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within 30 days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to higher authority against his order within the time prescribed by law and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 23rd April 1952.

(T1. 2083-30—51-52).

Reference:—Revised rules of the Text-Book Committee sanctioned by Government in their Order No. E. 12701-03—Edn. 3-51-8, dated 27th March 1952.

No. D. 12—T.B.C. 52-53. It is notified for general information that according to the revised rules, books will be received from publishers and Individual Authors during any part of the year for consideration and recommending them as Library books to various schools, viz., High and Middle Schools and Training Institutions. Revised rules in respect of patronage to books intended for Libraries will be enforced from 1st June 1952

1. Out of the books received for being considered as text-books, the books that are considered as suitable by general agreement of the reviewers and Chairman for use in the Libraries of the Educational Institutions of particular grades will be listed and recommended to the Libraries in schools.

2. The District Educational Officers may approve of the selection of books for libraries made by the Head Masters of High and Middle Schools in their Districts.

3. If an Author or Publisher desires that general recognition may be given by the Department by recommending his books to school libraries, he shall have to submit four copies of the book along with a chellan for having remitted Rs. 8 as reading fee under the Head XXVI Education (E) General Miscellaneous—Fees from Publishers or Authors or a demand draft on the Bank of Mysore or Imperial Bank of India or any Bank which has branches in Bangalore. No money orders will be accepted.

(1) These books shall be read by any two members of the Sub-Committee.

(2) Each member or Chairman will be paid Rs. 2 for reading.

(3) Copies of books submitted for patronage will not be returned to the Publishers. Only in the case of books costing more than Rs. 10 a copy, three copies of each such books will be returned to the Author or Publisher after they are read by the members. The Author or Publisher shall have to make his own arrangements to take back the books.

(4) It is not obligatory on the part of the Heads of Institutions to buy the library books recommended by the Director of Public Instruction. The purchase of these books is subject to the discretion of the Heads of Institutions and the availability of funds.

(5) The Director of Public Instruction at his discretion will recommend the use of certain rare and valuable books for teachers' reference. On such books, no review fees will be charged. At least one copy of such book shall have to be submitted to the Director of Public Instruction.

(6) Consolidated lists of books recommended will be sent out every quarter from the office. In the case of books received for being considered as text-books, but recommended for libraries, consolidated list will be issued after the meeting of the Secondary Education Board.

(7) Books recommended for libraries will be announced in the Mysore Gazette every quarter.

(8) A register will be maintained in the Office to enter all books recommended for the use of school libraries.

(9) No book once recommended as a library book will be recommended for the second time unless it is re-written, revised and a fresh application is made as per rules for the purpose.

(10) Application form for patronage to Library books shall be in the form given in the Appendix.

Note:—When replies are desired on letters addressed to secretary, Text-Book Committee (Office of the Director of Public Instruction, Bangalore) by Authors and Publishers of books and editors of newspapers and journals, stamped self-addressed envelopes have to be sent to the Secretary, Text-Book Committee.

K. GURU DUTT,
